

Camp Nesbit Open House

August 23, 2014

10 AM to 2 PM ET

The US Forest Service is hosting a special open house for Camp Nesbit, a historic camp located 8 miles south of Sidnaw, Michigan. Built in 1938 by the Civilian Conservation Corps by beautiful Nesbit Lake, Camp Nesbit has hosted generations of youth and adult visitors. The open house will showcase recent improvements completed to the buildings and grounds. Camp Nesbit alumni and first-time visitors are all welcome!

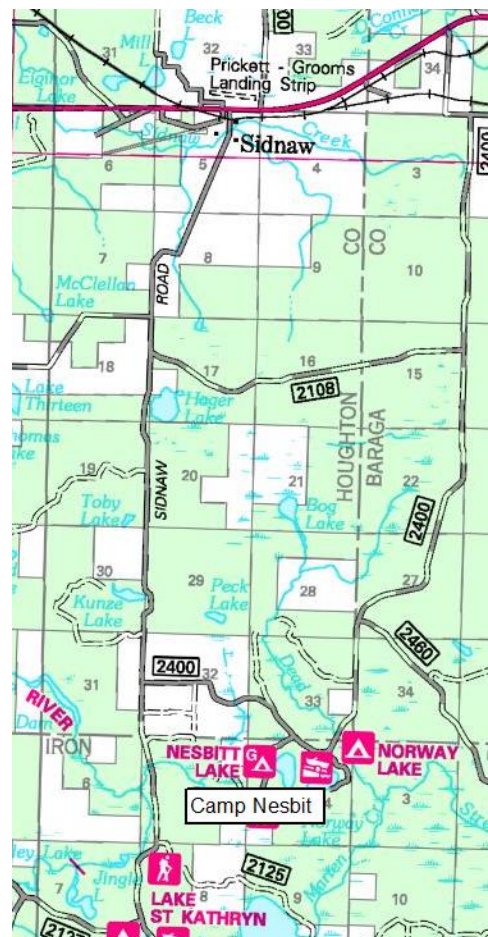

Planned activities include:

- Cook out
- Games
- Camp tours
- History of Camp Nesbit
- Canoeing
- Archery
- Tree identification
- Aquatic insect sampling
- Guided hike around Nesbit Lake

The Ropes Course, owned by the Copper Country Intermediate School District, will be open, with certified instructors on hand!

Alumni: Do you have any old photos or documents from your visits to Camp Nesbit? If you're willing to share, please bring them to the Open House. Forest Service staff will be on hand to scan materials and collect information, helping preserve the rich history of Camp Nesbit.

Getting there: Access from Sidnaw on Highway M28. Go south on South Sidnaw Road 5.9 miles to Forest Road 2400. Turn left (east) and go 1.7 miles. Turn right (south) at the entrance to Camp Nesbit and follow the road to the parking area.
